Let's begin the meeting with the pledge to the flag. (Pledge of Allegiance.) 2 Presentation of Revised Staff Budget CHAIRMAN ROSE: Okay. And we'll begin, Ed, with your presentation of the staff budget. This is the same that we were issued last week, isn't it? This is the same document that in front of us. MR. WUELLNER: Yes, sir. CHAIRMAN ROSE: Yeah. MR. WUELLNER: Didn't know if I understood your question. Yes, it is. Yes, it is. By way of summary, since we have covered this in previous meetings, you're looking at a 12 Positions within the Airport Authority budget as currently contained in the documents; Personnel Services total of $553,018; proposed	[1] [2] [3] [4] [5] [6] [7] [8] [9] [10] [11] [12] [13] [14] [15] [16] [17] [18] [19] [20] [21] [22] [23]		valorem revenues of $8,040,800 or 588, with an ad valorem contribution of $2,561,285, which would represent a millage of .2356 mills. Broken out further, following the Revenue Sources pie chart, you can see that Grants represent 46.3 percent of the total budget; Lease Revenues of 10.1 percent; Ad Valorem of 24.2 percent; Cash Forward representing just under 19 percent; and Interest Income of $57,000, represented by about a half a percent. Expenditure or the revenue listing for line item specific revenue projections is contained in the next page. I'm not going to read those individually. Be happy to try to address any questions related to revenue. Expenditures Summary pie chart illustrates that Debt Service & Reserves account for 12.8 percent of the total budget; Personnel Services, 5.2 percent of the total budget; operating expenditures or Operating Expenses of at 8.6 percent of the total budget; and Capital Outlay represents the lion's share of the total

And anything in addition that goes to litigation MR. KILE: Well MR. WUELLNER: is an addition additional item. And based on last year's budget numbers and relative to what was actually expended last year because of litigation, we felt from a staff perspective an adjustment upward would be required in order to not exceed that budget line item this year. MR. KILE: Well, I mean, $40,000 in attorney's fees to me in the beginning seems excessive. MR. WUELLNER: Uh-huh. MR. KILE: But now we're raising it by 50 percent in one year to $60,000. Now, I I I agree that if I ever have a case going, if Mr. McClure would take my case, I

You're reading the wrong line item. MR. KILE: Oh, I'm sorry. Yes, I am. Yes, I am. You're right. You're correct. I take that back. MR. WUELLNER: Has actually gone down from last year to this year. MR. KILE: Yeah, that's good. That's good. All right. Let's go on to the next one. We have attorney's fees at $40,000 in the previous two years, and it's now $60,000 for the upcoming year. Now, by my calculations, that's about a 50 percent increase in attorney's fees. I'd like a 50 percent raise. I know you, Mr. Wuellner, just got a 10 percent increase, but 50 percent seems kind of out of line, doesn't it? Comment? MR. WUELLNER: In terms of the total? Yeah, it would, if it were going specifically to salaries that were unrelated to litigation. But	[1] [2] [3] [4] [5] [6] [7] [8] [9] [10] [11] [12] [13] [14] [15] [16] [17] [18] [19] [20] [21] [22] [23]	services for anything related to litigation, the $40,000 number re equates to a retainer fee that's paid annually. And anything in addition that goes to litigation MR. KILE: Well MR. WUELLNER: is an addition additional item. And based on last year's budget numbers and relative to what was actually expended last year because of litigation, we felt from a staff perspective an adjustment upward would be required in order to not exceed that budget line item this year. 	[2]	homes for all of the people projected darn	[2]	figure that the airport has to grow because we're
	[3]	it all of the people projected to come into	[3]	getting more people, just because we're getting
	[4]	the county.	[4]	more people, that's not a reason.
	[5]	So, here we are on the Authority, helping	[5]	As a matter of fact, probably you or
	[6]	the lack of homes by buying nice homes to tear	[6]	Mr. Cooper, who knows more than me, will tell me
	[7]	them down. And that doesn't make any sense to	[7]	I'm wrong, but this airport isn't even near being
	[8]	me.	[8]	maxed out on utilization. And you just don't
	[9]	So, I was wondering if there'd be some way	[9]	judge it completely by how many people land and
	[10]	that this Authority could take a moratorium or a	[10]	take off here, because if you want to look at it,
	[11]	hiatus or whatever for a year or two to stop	[11]	the flight school has a lot to do with that,
	[12]	buying these homes and sit back and really,	[12]	Every time they make touch-and-goes, that's
	[13]	really look at it and see what we can do for this	[13]	a movement. And I've come out here at different
	[14]	airport without buying them. That $600,000	[14]	times and sit here, and I can sit for a half an
	[15]	$650,000 can come off the budget right then and	[15]	hour, there's no drinking a cup of coffee and
	[16]	there.	[16]	see nobody in the pattern,
	[17]	But Mr. Lassiter said with the when he	[17]	You don't have planes tail to tail coming
	[18]	came to this county, there was 40-some thousand	[18]	in, circling, make you know. So, we're not
	[19]	people here. I think when I came here, there was	[19]	that busy. This airport doesn't have to grow
	[20]	like 60,000. Now he mentions 131,000. I think	[20]	because we're projecting more people coming in.
	[21]	the last census here was, what, 120-some. But,	[21]	So, I'd like to see us stop buying these
	[22]	even at that, some of these are kids. They're	[22]	properties for a year at least and take a good ı	[23]	not adults.	[23]	hard look, if we really need to. Just because ı	[24]	These are you know, when you're making a	[24]	past boards started it, doesn't mean we have to ı	[25]	statement of total county people, a lot of them	[25]	continue it.

[18]	MR. LASSITER: That	[18]	out so far is for, is it Paula? Janet. Okay.
[19]	MR. WUELLNER: I'm not sure I understand	[19]	Now, what about this gentleman here from the [20]	what you I mean, I	[20]	consultants (indicating)? Will he be able to [21]	CHAIRMAN ROSE: You mean these meetings	[21]	turn in a pay voucher for every meeting he
[22]	would be held without Staff or the board there?	[22]	attends?
[23]	MR. CIRIELLO: No. I'm just saying there's	[23]	MR. WUELLNER: Not to me, but the company
[24]	no mand okay. Like I stated before, you two,	[24]	will. He doesn't get paid to sit here like today

WUELLNER: That's entirely up to you. MR. CIRIELLO: You mean at the next meeting, somebody could say let's make it .26 instead of this? MR. WUELLNER: That's correct. CHAIRMAN ROSE: Yeah. MR. LASSITER: I don't think that's going to happen, but MR. CIRIELLO: No. I'm just trying to MR. McCLURE: The concept MR. CIRIELLO: Why MR. McCLURE: Mr. Ciriello MR. CIRIELLO: we can go up when the last month we couldn't. MR. McCLURE: Well, you can't go up above what the TRIM notice was. And this represents the number that you're tentatively adopting. The	[2] [3] [4] [5] [6] [7] [3] [9] [10] [11] [12] [13] [14] [15] [16] [17] [18] [19] [20] [21] [22] [23]	square foot or 8,000-lineal-foot runways and you decided that was a great idea, you could go back up to as far as the .26, but the only thing this indicates what your intention is, subject to any additional input that you receive from the public next Monday. MR. CIRIELLO: Any way you look at it, even though it's minute, it's still a decrease over last year's budget, the .2512, to this. So, it is a movement downward. MR. WUELLNER: Yes, sir. MR. CIRIELLO: Okay. CHAIRMAN ROSE: Any further board discussion? (No further discussion.) CHAIRMAN ROSE: All in favor, say aye. MR. CIRIELLO: Aye. CHAIRMAN ROSE: Aye. MR. LASSITER: Aye. CHAIRMAN ROSE: Opposed? (No opposition.) CHAIRMAN ROSE: Motion is carried.
