Frontier Airlines Resumes Nonstop Service from Northeast Florida Regional Airport to Philadelphia Celebrates with low introductory fares available only at FlyFrontier.com

St. Augustine, FL (Dec. 16, 2016) – Frontier Airlines this week announced it will continue its low-fare service at Northeast Florida Regional Airport (UST) in St. Augustine, FL with seasonal return of nonstop service to Philadelphia International Airport (PHL). Service to Philadelphia will resume on April 21, 2017.

Flights between Northeast Florida Regional Airport and Philadelphia will operate on Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays. Visit flyfrontier.com for special offers.

Resumption of Seasonal Service

“We want to thank the Northeast Florida community for their continued support of our Low Fares Done Right service at Northeast Florida Regional Airport,” said Frontier Airlines spokesman Richard Oliver. “We’re excited to resume the only non-stop service from St. Augustine to the Northeast United States.”

St. Augustine, the nation’s oldest city, is conveniently located near Jacksonville and Daytona Beach. St. Augustine boasts a year-round mild climate, perfect for exploring the area’s rich history or enjoying the coast.
